Foreword

We are pleased to bring you this newly revised edition of a CALL to ACTION. Translated from its Hebrew counterpart, HaMaaseh Hu Halkar, this presentation is a collection of practical instruction from the Rebbe's Sichos pertaining to the beginning of the month of Adar Rishon.

HaMaaseh Hu Halkar is a compilation of Hora'os ("directives") culled from the Rebbe's talks in the years 5748 to 5752 (1988-1992), from both edited and unedited sources ("Muga" and "Bilti Muga"); we have expended great effort in our attempt to capture some of the Rebbe's carefully calculated and instructive phrasing. This edition's English translation was provided by Rabbi Yaakov Paley.

At this time, when Moshiach's arrival is imminent, the Rebbe, Melech HaMoshiach, has emphasized the primacy of action. We are now beginning to experience the era when we will fully appreciate "the superiority of deed" above scholarship. May this take place completely and immediately!

The Month of Adar

“When Adar enters, we increase joy”

INTRODUCTION

Our Sages tell us that on a birthday, one’s “spiritual power is predominant.” Consequently, on the birthday of a Leader of Jewry, the power of the entire nation is predominant.

In the case of Jewry’s ultimate Leader, Moshe Rabbeinu, this predominance not only exists on the 7th of Adar (when Moshe was born) – but throughout the month of Adar. For that reason, the Midrash considers it as if Moshe had been born on the 1st day of the month (which encapsulates the entire month).¹

During Adar, then, the power of Moshe Rabbeinu – and by extension, all Jewry – is predominant and manifested.

[In a leap-year, when the month of Adar is repeated, both months contain this virtue, and both are celebrated with great – even, doubled – joy.]

UTILIZE THE POWER FOR JOY

- From the immediate start² of the month of Adar, we should begin utilizing the abilities [that are now manifested] in order to increase in all joyful matters. Each of us should make positive resolutions – and begin implementing them in actuality – to

1. A month of Moshe

... Although the Sages of the Midrash knew of the teaching (recorded in Kidushin) proving that Moshe was in fact born on the 7th of Adar. (7th of Adar I 5752; Hisva’aduyos p.301, footnote 34)

2. The key to happiness

The commencement [lit., “opening”] of an undertaking contains unique power. In this case, the commencement of the month of Adar “opens the channels” of joy for the all the subsequent days of Adar. (Wed, Thu, Fri and Shabbos of Parshas Terumah 5752; Hisva’aduyos p.296) attempt to increase in joyful matters in every way possible.³

EARLIEST START – MEVARCHIM / ROSH CHODESH

- The principle, “When Adar enters, we increase joy,” includes the first day of Rosh Chodesh Adar⁴ [although it is

3. Ibid.

Month of unbridled joy

The joy of Purim transcends that of the festivals: The joy of the festivals is limited – to the extent that “the Jewish Court is obliged to post policeman during the festivals, and task them with patrolling (even) in the gardens and orchards” [to prevent undesirable behavior that might result from excessive frivolity]. On Purim, conversely, the joy is completely unlimited – so that our Sages tell us, “On Purim, we are obligated to drink wine to the point where we do not know the difference between ‘Blessed be Mordechai!’ and ‘Cursed be Haman!’”

... Further, the entire month of Adar has similar status to Purim, so that “When Adar enters, we [immediately] increase joy.” The entire month should be Purimdik, with unbridled joy.

Nevertheless, simply discussing this and making resolutions about it is insufficient. Rather, “The main thing is the deed,” as it is explained in Tanya ... We should experience literal joy. [Why, then, all this discussion?] It is only that in order to achieve action, we need to first promote this issue – well in advance, even before Rosh Chodesh Adar.

Start now

We should begin implementing this literally, immediately, on this very day of Shabbos – particularly since it is Shabbos Mevarchim Adar ... by saying “LeChaim!” on “wine that gladdens.” (Parshas Vayakhel 5749; Hisva’aduyos p.391)

See also Parshas Terumah 5751 (Hivaduyos p.304), regarding experiencing Purim-joy throughout the month of Adar. See also Parshas Terumah 5749 (Hisva’aduyos p.337).

4. Is it really Adar?

... Although the first day of Rosh Chodesh is technically the 30th day of the month of Shevat ... nevertheless, since it is also the first day of Rosh Chodesh Adar, it is therefore included in the principle “When Adar enters, we increase joy.” (Parshas Terumah 5751, footnote 1; Hisva’aduyos p.300.)

... or isn’t it?

Research is required regarding the first day of Rosh Chodesh Adar, to determine whether it is included in the concept of “the month which was transformed into rejoicing, etc.” and by extension, in the law that “the Megilah may be read during the entire month of Adar.” (ibid, footnote 53)

2nd day of Rosh Chodesh

... Unlike the first day of Rosh Chodesh Adar, which is also the 30th of Shevat. In fact, being the 30th of Shevat ... it bears the hallmark of Shevat more than that of Adar. For that reason, the first day of Rosh Chodesh simply cannot convey the complete state of “When Adar enters.” (ibid, footnote 14)

technically the last day of the previous month of Shevat].

- In fact, we should begin increasing joy on Shabbos Mevarchim Adar [the last Shabbos in Shevat] – for it is then that we first begin to “enter” Adar, to the extent that blessings for the entire month of Adar are then elicited.⁵

TRUE JOY INCLUDES OTHERS

- We should increase all joyful matters, both personal matters as well as those that make others joyful – especially if it involves ten (or more) Jewish adults.⁶ After all, a complete state of joy necessarily includes others.⁷
- We should make a great worldwide commotion about generating joy!⁸

NOVEL DELIGHT EACH DAY IN ADAR

- Our increase in joyful matters should be multiplied and

After Rosh Chodesh

We could add by scrutinizing the precise phraseology of our Sages’ statement, “MiSheNichnas Adar,” “When Adar enters”: The main, and complete, entry of the month of Adar is only attained after an entire day within Adar (i.e., the 1st of Adar) has already passed – i.e., now that it is the 2nd of Adar... (ibid, p.300-301).

5. Parshas Vayakhel 5749; Hisva’aduyos p.387, footnote 112.

6. Spread joy

Even if our service has already been done in a [complete] manner that is represented by “ten,” i.e., we fully utilized all ten soul-powers, we should nevertheless utilize the time (of Shabbos – all the way until Motzei Shabbos, if G-d forbid, Moshiach is delayed until then) to influence ten Jewish adults (ten being the number required for a sacred ritual [such as a Minyan]), in the literal sense – beginning with our own household, acquaintances, friends and so on.

This is certainly the case regarding spreading joy ... since when we make others joyful, we make ourselves more happier as well. (Parshas Tetzaveh 5752; Sichos Kodesh p.748)

7. Parshas Terumah 5752; Hisva’aduyos p.297.

Make happiness part of who you are

The theme of joy – making ourselves, and others, joyful – should become ingrained in us, so that it becomes part and parcel of our physical selves. (Parshas Terumah 5752; Sichos Kodesh p.717)

8. Ad DeLo Yada

“We increase joy,” bringing it to the unbridled level of “Ad DeLo Yada” (“...until we do not know [the difference between ‘Blessed be Mordechai!’ etc.”]), i.e., completely transcending the realm of intellect and knowledge. (Parshas Vayakhel 5749; Hisva’aduyos p.387)

amplified with each new day in the month(s) of Adar. Our joy should include a new feature each day – as in the law of “Panim Chadashos” [where a new participant is required on each subsequent day of the Sheva Berachos (seven-day post-wedding festivities) in order to fuel the joy with novelty].⁹

RUSH TO REJOICE / MORE THE MERRIER

- The principles that apply to all matters of goodness and holiness are: “The sooner, the superior!” and “The more, the worthier!” We should certainly apply these principles to “Simchah,” rejoicing – which by nature defies all limitations...¹⁰

SOURCE OF JOY: MORE TORAH AND MITZVOS

- For a start, we should generate this great joy by increasing our observance of Mitzvos – for “The commandments of Hashem are upright; they gladden the heart.”¹¹
- We should increase our study of both the inner and “revealed” dimensions of Torah – and, in the spirit of the Talmudic dictum “Great is study for it leads to action,” we should enhance our observance of the Mitzvos as well.¹¹

9. Parshas Terumah 5752; Hisva’aduyos p.297.

Constant climb

... And within each day, from hour to hour, from minute to minute, and all the more so from one prayer service to the next – for each prayer service includes an elevation to a higher spiritual rung. (Parshas Terumah 5751; Hisva’aduyos p.300, footnote 12)

10. Parshas Terumah 5752; Hisva’aduyos p.297.

Do it in Adar

... Including those joyful matters which you had previously thought to postpone until much later... You should now expedite these plans to as early as possible – “The sooner, the better!” After all, you are bringing it forward to a most “praiseworthy” month, the month of Adar [and are therefore deserving of “praise” for advancing these matters]. (Parshas Terumah 5752; Sichos Kodesh p.714)

11. Parshas Terumah 5752; Hisva’aduyos p.297.

True source of joy

Naturally, our increased joy stems from the joy of Torah and Mitzvos – “The commandments of Hashem are upright; they gladden the heart.” To be more precise, it stems from an increase in all three areas of Torah, prayer and acts of kindness. (Parshas Mishpatim 5750; Hisva’aduyos p.317)

FROM SPIRITUAL TO PHYSICAL JOY

- Most importantly, our additional involvement in the joy of Torah and Mitzvos should fuel an increased joy on the literal level, i.e., in and via physical matters – as explained in Shulchan Aruch [regarding Yom Tov].¹²

HAPPINESS BEGINS AT HOME

- We should make ourselves and others more joyful – beginning with the members of our own households. Husbands should make their wives more cheerful, and parents (particularly fathers¹³) should make their children gladder – with the physical things that naturally make them happy, as explained in Shulchan Aruch [regarding Yom Tov].¹⁴

Yahrtzait of Rabbi Shmariahu Gurary

BRIEF HISTORY

Rabbi Shmariahu Gurary (known by his initials, RaSHaG) was the son-in-law of the Previous Rebbe and brother-in-law of the Rebbe.¹⁵

12. Parshas Terumah 5752; Hisva'aduyos p.297.

13. Fatherly influence

As we clearly see for ourselves, when a father makes his children happy, their happiness is even greater [than when their mother pleases them]. For his children know that he is also capable of disciplining them [lit., “telling them a harsh word”] for the sake of education (needless to say, in a manner whereby he subsequently comes to love them all the more)... (Parshas Terumah 5752; Hisva'aduyos p.297)

In general, a father should also relate to his children in a disciplinary manner; for example, when testing a child [on his studies] and the child fails to give proper answers and the like. Nevertheless, immediately afterwards, the father consoles and appeases the child... (Parshas Terumah 5752; Sichos Kodosh p.717)

Publisher's Note: HaRav HaGaon, HaRav HaChasid, Rav Shmariahu ben Rav Menachem Mendel a"h Gurary, son-in-law of the Previous Rebbe and brother-in-law of the Rebbe. (ibid, footnote 70)

The Previous Rebbe appointed him as Director of the international network of Tomchei Temimim (Lubavitch) Yeshivos.

The Rashag passed away on the 6th of Adar I 5749 (1989) – just one day before the 7th of Adar, the birthday and passing of Moshe Rabbeinu (See below, 7th of Adar).¹⁶

INCREASE NIGLEH AND CHASSIDUS

- Today being the 6th of Adar (and the day preceding the 7th of Adar), we should particularly increase our study of both the inner and “revealed” dimensions of Torah.¹⁷
- We should maintain this increased level of Torah study through the 7th of Adar as well.¹⁷

TZEDAKAH, TORAH AND MITZVOS

- “Great is study since it leads to action!” Along with our increased study, we should increase our distribution of Tzedakah – as well as making positive resolutions in all realms of Torah and Mitzvos.¹⁷

TORAH SESSIONS

- This includes observing the important practice that was instituted by Moshe Rabbeinu, “To gather congregations each Shabbos to study Torah” (a topic that we have discussed on many recent occasions).¹⁷

FULFILL THE GOAL OF TOMCHEI TEMIMIM

- This increase in activities, etc., is particularly relevant to students of the Tomchei Temimim Yeshivah; they should increase their efforts at fulfilling their mission:
- First and foremost, they should increase their study of both

17. Ibid p.338.

the inner and “revealed” dimensions of Torah.¹⁸ In addition, they should increase their unique service of “providing illumination” by disseminating Chassidus.¹⁹

YESHIVAH FARBRENGENS

- The students of the Tomchei Temimim Yeshivah, in conjunction with the instructions of the Yeshivah administration, should continue holding joyful,²⁰ Chassidische Farbrengens, and also make positive resolutions in all of the above directives.

PUBLISH MA’AMORIM

- In honor of the Rashag’s first Yahrtzeit in 5750 (1990), the Rebbe announced that it would be fitting to publish Chassidic discourses on the topic of the Redemption, Techiyas Hamesim (the Resurrection) and similar subjects.²⁰

18. A complete Torah

... According to the famous account of how the Yeshivah received its name, “Tomchei Temimim”: The name was given by [its founder] the Rebbe Rashab during Hakafos on Simchas Torah – immediately after reciting the liturgical supplication “Tomchei Temimim Hoshiah Nah,” “[Hashem,] Supporter of [Your people] the wholesome ones – Please save us!”

At that time, he added, “The purpose of the Yeshivah is to have a “complete” Torah (Torah Temimah), i.e., with both its “revealed” and Chassidic dimensions [being studied in complementary fashion].” (ibid, p.335-336)

19. Banish darkness

The Tomchei Temimim Yeshivah was specifically founded (by the Rebbe Rashab) towards the end of our Exile, so that its students should become “lamps that illuminate” the greatly intensified gloom of the [final and darkest era of Exile, known as the] “footsteps of Moshiach.” (ibid, p.335)

20. More than Malach Michael

Great importance is attached to a Chassidische Farbrengen. In the words of the Alter Rebbe, based on “a message that descended from Heaven”: A Chassidische Farbrengen has the power to achieve that which the archangel Michael, the “Angel of the Jews,” cannot achieve!

We should therefore add to our rejoicing by holding a joyful Farbrengen, especially during Shabbos – “the day of your rejoicing” – and all the more so on a Shabbos during the month of Adar, when “we increase joy”...

Moreover, this applies as soon as “Adar enters” – while we are already six days into Adar, each day bringing a further increase in joy... (ibid p.341)

7th of Adar

Birthday and Yahrtzait of Moshe Rabbeinu

INTRODUCTION

The 7th of Adar is the anniversary of both the birth and passing of Moshe Rabbeinu. In addition to the obvious significance of such a date, the 7th of Adar also influences the entire month of Adar. Our Sages tell us that it was the enormous influence of the 7th of Adar that caused the miracle of Purim to occur and transformed Adar into a month of unrivalled joy.

To explain: The supernal source of a soul (its “Mazal”) is bolstered and predominant on the day of one’s birth. Being that “Moshe is [considered] all” of the Jewish people, the Mazal that is bolstered on his birthday is that of the entire nation. Thus we are told that during the month of Adar, the Mazal of the Jews is “predominant and healthy.”

Moreover, the goal of Creation is to transform the world into a dwelling for Hashem. This theme is uniquely expressed in the month of Adar (אדר), whose name is comprised of the letter א (Alef), representing Hashem, the “Master” (Aluf – אלוף) of the Universe – and the word דר (Dar), meaning “to dwell.”

The number 7 signifies the natural cycle, and by extension, all of Creation which was made in 7 days. Thus the 7th day of Adar symbolizes the details of existence being transformed into Hashem’s dwelling – the fruition of Hashem’s plan for Creation.²¹

MINHAGIM: EACH TO THEIR OWN

- The 7th of Adar (Rishon²²) is a special day with unique

21. 7th Adar 5752; Hisva’aduyos p.300-305.

22. Adar Rishon

The concept of the “7th of Adar” [i.e., in the context of the birth and passing of customs. Some of these customs are stated in Shulchan Aruch, and others are recorded in subsequent works. These are the unique – and sometimes conflicting – customs that are actually practiced among the various Jewish groups, in the spirit of “each river follows its own course.”²³

TREAT IT AS BEFITS A HOLY DAY

- We do not find any openly publicized²⁴ Chabad²⁵ customs for the 7th of Adar. Nevertheless, we make particular effort to utilize this day in a fitting manner and in a spirit of holiness – by increasing in the joy of Torah and Mitzvos.²⁶

FARBRENG AND DISCUSS CHASSIDUS

- Among Chassidim – particular Chabad Chassidim – the 7th of Adar has been transformed from a day of fasting into a day of Farbrengen, where we discuss matters of Chassidus and its dissemination.²⁷

Moshe Rabbeinu] applies to the first month of Adar [in a leap-year, when there are two months of Adar]. (Parshas Terumah, 6th Adar 5749; Hisva’aduyos p.337. See also p.324, footnote 2.)

23. 7th Adar 5748; Hisva’aduyos p.388.

24. No Chabad customs

... Concerning neither fasting [as many do on a Yahrtzait], nor rejoicing (as is the custom amongst many Jewish groups, who arrange joyful events on a Yahrtzait, as a “Tikun” [corrective merit] for the soul [of the departed]. (ibid.)

25. Tachanun

Although the Rebbes of Chabad do not recite the penitentiary Tachanun prayer on the 7th of Adar, the regular congregants in a Chabad Shul [do recite Tachanun]. See Likutei Sichos, vol.16, p.251, footnote 79. (ibid, footnote 5)

26. Fight darkness – add goodness

We should combat the affect of Yeridas HaDoros [the continuous spiritual and physical decline of each subsequent generation] and the ever-thickening darkness of Exile [that has grown steadily oppressive] all the way until our present generation, the final generation of Exile – by making ever-greater efforts to utilize every opportunity and every matter to increase, with ever-growing strength, in all matters of goodness and holiness...

And since this year is a “Hakhel” year, as well the year 5748 – which spells the word “Tisamach,” “rejoice!” – our efforts should assume additional emphasis. (ibid.)

27. Yahrtzait – celebrate with joy

According to Chassidic custom, a Yahrtzait is not associated with undesirable practices and the like [i.e., self affliction, fasting, etc.] Quite the opposite – it is

BOTH MONTHS OF ADAR

- During a leap year [when the month of Adar is repeated], we should apply the theme of the “7th of Adar” to both the 7th of Adar Rishon and Adar Sheini [i.e., during both months].
- On either date, our observance should not be merely on a spiritual level – but rather, accompanied by practical ramifications.²⁸ customary to hold a “Tikkun” [where food and beverages are served, and the participants exchange blessings and wishes of “Lechaim!” on behalf of the departed].

This [positive approach] is also emphasized by holding a specifically joyous gathering, accompanied by a Siyum [concluding celebration] over [having completed the study of] a section of Torah. (24th Tishrei 5750; Hisva’aduyos p.245)

Three loves

On the 7th of Adar, we begin to add, with far greater vigor, in our study of Torah and enhanced observance of Mitzvos. We have begun by holding [this present] gathering, attended by a great number of Jews, and conducted with brotherly-love (Ahavas Achim) and the love and unity between fellow Jews (Ahavas and Achdus Yisrael) – which is in turn bound with love of Hashem. For by having Ahavas Yisrael, we “show affection for those whom our Beloved loves” [i.e., our fellow Jews, who are loved by Hashem, “our Beloved”].

To be precise, this involves three loves which are really all one: The love of Hashem, of Torah and of our fellow Jews. (7th of Adar 5748; Hisva’aduyos p.392)

28. Two Adars are better than one

It is not clear whether the 7th of Adar in which Moshe was born – and also reached the age of 120 [i.e., his passing] – occurred during a regular year or a leap-year. [Rather, it is a matter of debate.] Seemingly, we could apply the principle to “follow the majority” – and safely assume that the year was a regular year, like the majority of years.

The debate takes on practical significance during a leap-year; which is the correct month to celebrate the 7th of Adar – should we celebrate it during the first month or the second...?

One thing is certain: We should apply the theme of the “7th of Adar” to both the 7th of Adar Rishon and Adar Sheini. Further, we should not only do so in the abstract manner [reflecting the fact that] “both opinions [in a Rabbinic debate, even the “rejected” view] are [considered] the words of the Living G-d.” Rather, we should express the theme of the 7th of Adar during both months – literally, i.e., in actuality, in the manner of “Hashem was with him, so that the Halachah [the final law] accords with his view” [i.e., we should see either view as being the practical law, in this regard].

... This way we double the theme of the “7th of Adar,” by celebrating it twice... (7th of Adar I 5752; Sichos Kodosh p.721)
